Administrative Complaints

If you experience a problem with voting systems standards, provisional voting or any other voting problem covered by Title III of the Help America Vote Act of 2002 (HAVA) and wish to register a formal complaint, there is a specific process for addressing it.

You must submit your complaint to the Commissioner of Elections or any of the Departments of Elections for the counties. The complaint must be:

- ◆ In writing
- ◆ Notarized
- ◆ Signed and sworn by the voter.

Affidavits must be signed and notarized

If the complaint is originally submitted to the Department of Elections for the county, it will be forwarded to the Commissioner of Elections on the same day it is received.

The Commissioner's Office will notify the complainant that they received the complaint and what the resolution process will be.

The Commissioner is authorized to consolidate similar complaints for resolution purposes. If the complainant requests it, there will be a hearing for the record.

Determinations

After receiving the complaint, the Commissioner

Data is gathered before determinations are made appoints a person or persons to examine it, gather data and determine if there was a violation.

If the person investigating the complaint determines that there is a violation, they will report this and recommend a suitable remedy to the Commissioner. The Commissioner can accept, reject or modify the recommended remedy.

If the investigator finds that there was no violation, the complaint will be dismissed. The Commissioner will publish the results of each investigation and resolution.

Timeframes

The Commissioner of Elections will make a final determination with respect to a complaint within 90 days of when the complaint was received, unless the complainant consents to a longer period of time.

If the deadline is not met, the Commissioner of Elections must take action to ensure that the complaint is resolved within 60 days under alternative dispute resolution procedures. All existing materials will be made available for these proceedings.
